Vendor / Partner Letter

Dear [VENDOR / PARTNER],

For over 100 years, Herman Miller has been an industry innovator with brands that have become synonymous with modern design. Our partners have played an important role in our growth and success, which is why I am reaching out to update you on some exciting news, both for Herman Miller and our industry.

Earlier this morning, we announced that we have entered into an agreement to acquire Knoll, a constellation of design-driven brands using modern design to connect people with their work, lives, and world. We expect the transaction to close by the end of the third quarter of calendar year 2021, subject to the satisfaction of closing conditions. A press release with more details was issued and can be found here: www.NewLeaderInModernDesign.com.

We are excited about this combination for many reasons. Bringing Herman Miller and Knoll together will create the preeminent leader in modern design, catalyzing the transformation of the home and office sectors at a time of unprecedented disruption. Our businesses are highly complementary, and collectively we will have 19 leading brands, presence across over 100 countries worldwide, a global dealer network, 64 showrooms globally, more than 50 physical retail locations, and global multi-channel eCommerce capabilities.

As distributed working models become the new normal for companies, businesses are reimagining the office to foster collaboration, culture, and focused work, while supporting a growing remote employee base. At the same time, consumers are making significant investments in their homes. Together, we believe we will be well positioned to lead the industry in redefining home and office design solutions, poised to meet our customers everywhere they live and work.

Herman Miller and Knoll both have cultures guided by values that support problem solving design and doing well by doing good, and these shared beliefs will contribute to a smooth integration. But for now, and until the transaction closes, Herman Miller and Knoll will continue to operate as separate, independent companies. This means that our existing contracts with you will continue to be honored in accordance with their terms and all business will continue in the normal course. Your contacts at Herman Miller will also remain the same. In short, it remains business as usual and there will be no change in how we work with you.

We expect the process to be seamless for you and will continue to communicate any new information to you throughout the process leading up to close and beyond. In the interim, if you have any questions, please don’t hesitate to reach out to your usual contact.

You remain critical to our success. We greatly appreciate your support and look forward to continuing our business relationship with you.

Sincerely,
