The first part is the prospectus supplement, which describes the specific terms of this offering of the Securities and also adds to and updates information contained in the accompanying prospectus and the documents incorporated by reference in this prospectus supplement and the accompanying prospectus. The second part is the accompanying prospectus, dated February 19, 2009, which describes more general information, some of which may not apply to this offering. You should read both this prospectus supplement and the accompanying prospectus, together with the additional information described under the heading “Where You Can Find More Information.”

When acquiring any Securities discussed in this prospectus supplement, you should rely only on the information provided in this prospectus supplement and the accompanying prospectus, including the information incorporated by reference. Neither we, nor any dealers or agents, have authorized anyone to provide you with different information. The Selling Securityholders are not offering the Securities in any jurisdiction where the offer is prohibited. You should not assume that the information in this prospectus supplement or any document incorporated by reference is accurate or complete at any date other than the date mentioned on the cover page of these documents.

If the information set forth in this prospectus supplement differs in any way from the information set forth in the accompanying prospectus, you should rely on the information set forth in this prospectus supplement. If the information conflicts with any statement in a document which we have incorporated by reference, then you should consider only the statement in the more recent document.

In this prospectus supplement and the accompanying prospectus, the terms “we,” the “company,” “us,” and “our” refer to Herman Miller, Inc.

However, the timing and amount of future dividends, if any, is at the discretion of our Board of Directors and will depend upon our operating results, financial condition, cash requirements, restrictions in terms of financing arrangements, and other relevant factors. DESCRIPTION OF COMMON STOCK

General

The following description of our common stock summarizes the material terms and provisions of the Securities that may be offered from time to time pursuant to this prospectus supplement. For the complete terms of our common stock, please refer to our Restated Articles of Incorporation, as amended, and Amended and Restated Bylaws that are incorporated by reference into the registration statement of which this prospectus supplement is a part or may be incorporated by reference in this prospectus supplement. The terms of our common stock may also be affected by the Michigan Business Corporation Act. The summary below is qualified in its entirety by reference to our Restated Articles of Incorporation, as amended, and Amended and Restated Bylaws, copies of which have been filed with the SEC and are also available upon request from us.

Our Restated Articles of Incorporation authorize us to issue a total of 240,000,000 shares of our common stock. As of July 22, 2009, a total of 55,884,937 shares were issued and outstanding. We have reserved an aggregate of 7,792,416 shares of our common stock for issuance pursuant to equity incentive and other stock plans we have previously adopted.

Holders of our common stock are entitled to receive dividends if, as and when declared by our Board of Directors out of funds legally available for dividends. Holders of our common stock are also entitled, upon our liquidation, and after claims of creditors and the preferences of any class or series of preferred stock outstanding at the time of liquidation, to receive pro rata our net assets.

Holders of our common stock are entitled to one vote for each share that they hold and are vested with all of the voting power except as our Board of Directors may provide in the future with respect to preferred stock that the Board of Directors may hereafter authorize. Shares of our common stock are not redeemable, and have no subscription, conversion or preemptive rights.

Transfer Agent and Registrar

The transfer agent and registrar for our common stock is Computershare Investor Services, LLC.

Anti-Takeover Effects of Certain Provisions in our Articles, Bylaws and Michigan Law

Some provisions of our Restated Articles of Incorporation, as amended, our Amended and Restated Bylaws, as well as Michigan law may be deemed to have an anti-takeover effect and may collectively operate to delay, defer, or prevent a tender offer or takeover attempt that a shareholder might consider in his or her best interest, including those attempts that might result in a premium over the market price for the shares held by our shareholders. These provisions include:

Preferred Stock Authorization. Our Board of Directors, without shareholder approval, has the authority under our Restated Articles of Incorporation, as amended, to issue preferred stock with rights superior to the rights of the holders of common stock. As a result, preferred stock, while not intended as a defensive measure against takeovers, could be issued quickly and easily, could adversely affect the rights of holders of common stock, and could be issued with terms calculated to delay or prevent a change of control of the Company or make removal of management more difficult.

Classified Board of Directors. The Company’s Restated Articles of Incorporation divide the members of our Board of Directors into three classes. The members of each class serve for a three-year term. The terms are staggered so that each year the term of only one of the classes expires. Staggering directors’ terms makes it more difficult for a potential acquirer to seize control of a target company through a proxy contest, even if the acquirer controls a majority of our stock, because only one-third of the directors stand for election in any one year.

Size of the Board of Directors. The Company’s Restated Articles of Incorporation provide that the number of directors may be determined by an affirmative vote of 80% of the Board of Directors and a majority of the Continuing Directors (as defined in the Restated Articles of Incorporation). Generally, a “Continuing Director” is a director who is unaffiliated with a person or entity who owns 10% or more of the Company’s common stock and was a director before the shareholder owned 10% or more of the Company’s common stock. The approval by the Continuing Directors makes it more difficult for a potential acquirer to seize control of the Board of Directors by increasing the number of directors and electing, through its voting power, sufficient directors to control the Board.

Board Evaluation of Certain Offers. The Company’s Restated Articles of Incorporation require the Board of Directors to evaluate any offer to make a tender or exchange offer for any capital stock of the Company, to merge or consolidate the Company with any other entity or to purchase or otherwise acquire all or substantially all of the assets or business of the Company prior to approving, adopting or recommending any such offer. Specifically, the Board of Directors must determine that any such offer would be in compliance with all applicable laws and that the offer is in the best interests of the Company and its shareholders. In connection with its evaluation of the best interests of the Company and its shareholders, the Board of Directors must consider all relevant factors, including, among other factors, the potential social and economic impact of the offer and its consummation on the Company, its employees, customers, vendors and the communities in which the Company operates or is located. The obligation of the Board of Directors to consider such interests may make it more difficult for a potential acquirer to seize control of the Company.

Amendment of Restated Articles of Incorporation and Amended and Restated Bylaws. Under the terms of the Company’s Restated Articles of Incorporation, amendments to Article IX of the Restated Articles of Incorporation (concerning the Board of Directors) and to Article X of the Restated Articles of Incorporation (concerning Board Evaluation of Certain Offers) require an affirmative vote of at least 80% of the outstanding shares entitled to vote on those matters. Under the terms of the Company’s Amended and Restated Bylaws, amendments to Sections 2 or 3 of Article IV of the Amended and Restated Bylaws (concerning directors) require an affirmative vote of a majority of the Continuing Directors and at least 80% of the Board of Directors.

Director Nominations. The Company’s Amended and Restated Bylaws provide that nominations for the election of directors may be made by the Board of Directors or by a shareholder entitled to vote in the election of directors. A shareholder entitled to vote in the election of directors, however, may make such a nomination only if written notice of such shareholder’s intent to do so has been given to the Company within certain periods of time. Each shareholder’s notice must include certain information concerning the shareholder making the nomination and the nominee as may reasonably be required by the Company to determine the qualifications of such person to serve as a director.

Shareholder Proposals. The Company’s Amended and Restated Bylaws provide that the Board of Directors will submit for consideration and vote by the shareholders, at any meeting of the shareholders, only those proposals that are first brought before the meeting by or at the direction of the Board of Directors, or by any shareholder entitled to vote at such meeting; (a) who submits to the Company a timely Notice of Proposal in accordance with the requirements of Section 12 of Article III of the Amended and Restated Bylaws and the proposal is a proper subject for action by shareholders under Michigan law; or (b) whose proposal is included in the Company’s proxy materials in compliance with all the requirements set forth in the applicable rules and regulations of the SEC. Each shareholder’s Notice of Proposal must include certain information concerning the shareholder submitting the notice as well as the proposal.

Fair Price Act. Certain provisions of the Michigan Business Corporation Act, referred to as the Fair Price Act, establish a statutory scheme similar to the supermajority and fair price provisions found in many corporate charters. The Fair Price Act provides that a supermajority vote of 90% of the shareholders and no less than two-thirds of the votes of noninterested shareholders must approve a “business combination.” The Fair Price Act defines a “business combination” to include nearly any merger, consolidation, share exchange, sale of assets, stock issuance, liquidation, or reclassification of securities involving an “interested shareholder” or certain “affiliates” of an interested shareholder. An “interested shareholder” is generally any person who owns 10% or more of the outstanding voting shares of the Company. An “affiliate” is a person who directly or indirectly controls, is controlled by, or is under common control with a specified person.

The supermajority vote required by the Fair Price Act does not apply to business combinations that satisfy certain conditions. These conditions include, among others: (1) the purchase price to be paid for the shares of common stock in the business combination must be at least equal to the highest of either (a) the market value of the shares on the date that the business combination was announced or on the date that the interested shareholder first became an interested shareholder, whichever is higher, or (b) the highest per share price paid by an interested shareholder within the two-year period preceding the announcement of the business combination or in the transaction in which the shareholder first became an interested shareholder, whichever is higher; (2) once becoming an interested shareholder, the person may not become the beneficial owner of any additional shares of the Company except as part of the transaction that resulted in the interested shareholder becoming an interested shareholder or by virtue of proportionate stock splits or stock dividends; and (3) at least five years have passed between the date the interested shareholder first became an interested shareholder and the date the business combination is completed. The requirements of the Fair Price Act do not apply to business combinations with an interested shareholder that the Board of Directors has approved or exempted from the requirements of the Fair Price Act by resolution before the time that the interested shareholder first became an interested shareholder.

SELLING SECURITYHOLDERS

On June 24, 2009, we issued the Securities covered by this prospectus supplement to Seller, which is the initial Selling Securityholder under this prospectus supplement, in a transaction exempt from the registration requirements of the Securities Act. The table below sets forth the name of the initial Selling Securityholder, its beneficial ownership prior to and after the completion of this offering and the number of Securities that the initial Selling Securityholder, or its shareholders, affiliates or successors, including transferees, may from time to time offer and sell, pursuant to this prospectus supplement. The table assumes that, after completion of the offering, none of the Securities covered by this prospectus supplement will be held by the Selling Securityholders.

Selling Securityholder	Shares Beneficially Owned Prior to the Offering		Shares Offered Hereby	Shares Beneficially Owned After the Offering
	Shares	Percent		Shares	Percent
NC Holding Company(1)	2,041,666	3.8%	2,041,666	--	--

(1) The outstanding equity securities of NC Holding Company are owned by Mark S. Nemschoff (who owns approximately 61.7% of the equity securities of NC Holding Company), Paul Nemschoff (who owns approximately 21.8% of the equity securities of NC Holding Company), Amy Hellman (who owns approximately 15.5% of the equity securities of NC Holding Company), and The Nemschoff Family Trust of 2009 (which owns approximately 1.0% of the equity securities of NC Holding Company). Each of the foregoing may be transferees of the initial Selling Securityholder and may from time to time, either directly or indirectly through other transferees, offer and sell Securities pursuant to this prospectus supplement.

Beneficial ownership is determined in accordance with the rules of the SEC and includes voting or investment power with respect to the Securities. To our knowledge, the Selling Securityholders have sole voting and investment power with respect to the Securities.

We do not know when or in what amounts the Selling Securityholders may offer the Securities for sale. The Selling Securityholders might not sell any or all of the Securities offered by this prospectus supplement.

Because the Selling Securityholders may offer all or some of the Securities pursuant to this offering, and because currently no sale of any of the Securities is subject to any agreements, arrangements or understandings (other than as set forth in the Purchase Agreement), we cannot estimate the number of the Securities that will be held by the Selling Securityholders after completion of the offering.

Under the Purchase Agreement, the Company acquired all of the equity interests of the Target from the initial Selling Securityholder. The Target was acquired for a combination of $32.1 million in cash, which was paid with cash-on-hand and the issuance of the Securities. Additionally, there are two forms of contingent consideration: one being in the form of a performance-based payment that is in the range of $0 and $25 million and would be earned over the next two years, and the other contingent consideration is in the form of a contingent value right (“CVR”) for each share of common stock issued. In the aggregate, the CVRs will be in the range of $0 and $22 million in two years. Each CVR entitles the Seller to compensation in the event that the Company’s share price is below $24 per share in June, 2011. A floor price of $13.28 has been established that provides a maximum payout of $10.72 per share to payable at the time of maturity. Both the performance-based and CVR payments, if any, may be made in either cash or stock at the Company’s discretion.

In connection with that transaction, Mr. Mark S. Nemschoff entered into an Executive Consulting and Noncompete Agreement and, effective July 22, 2009, was appointed to the Board of Directors of the Company. Under the terms of the Executive Consulting and Noncompete Agreement, Mr. Mark S. Nemschoff has agreed to provide consulting services to the Company on a substantially full-time basis with the purpose of facilitating the transition and integration of the Target with the Company as well as participating with strategic planning and business development. The agreement is for a term of two years and provides for an annual consulting fee of $275,000 and certain health insurance and fringe benefits. Also, in connection with that transaction, Mr. Paul Nemschoff entered into an Executive Employment and Noncompete Agreement under which Mr. Paul Nemschoff is employed by the Target as its Vice President of Sales and Customer Care. The agreement is for a term of two years and provides for annual compensation of $225,000 and certain health insurance and fringe benefit. Also, in connection with that transaction, the Company entered into a Lease Agreement with an entity that is indirectly controlled by Mr. Mark S. Nemschoff. The premises, consisting of approximately 90,000 square feet, is to be leased by the Company for a period of five years at an annual rent of $240,000. Finally, also in connection with the transaction, the Company entered into a three-year supply agreement with Colby Metal, Inc., an entity indirectly controlled by Mr. Mark S. Nemschoff, for the supply of certain light gauge sheet steel and tubular fabrication and/or paint equipment, products and services. Prior to the acquisition of the Securities, none of the Selling Securityholders owned any of the Company’s common stock.

PLAN OF DISTRIBUTION

The Selling Securityholders or their affiliates or successors, including their transferees, may sell the Securities directly to purchasers or through underwriters, broker-dealers or agents, who may receive compensation in the form of discounts, concessions or commissions from the Selling Securityholders or the purchasers of the Securities. These discounts, concessions or commissions as to any particular underwriter, broker-dealer or agent may be in excess of those customary in the types of transactions involved.

The Securities may be sold in one or more transactions at fixed prices, at prevailing market prices at the time of sale, at varying prices determined at the time of sale or at negotiated prices. These sales may be effected in transactions, which may involve crosses or block transactions:

- on any national securities exchange or quotation service on which the common stock may be listed or quoted at the time of sale, including, as of the date of this prospectus supplement, the NASDAQ Global Select Market;
- in the over-the-counter market;
- in transactions otherwise than on these exchanges or services or in the over-the-counter market; or
- through the writing of options, whether the options are listed on an options exchange or otherwise.

In addition, any securities that qualify for sale pursuant to Rule 144 under the Securities Act may be sold under Rule 144 rather than pursuant to this prospectus supplement.

In connection with the sale of the Securities or otherwise and subject to applicable law, the Selling Securityholders may enter into hedging transactions with broker-dealers, which may in turn engage in short sales of the Securities in the course of hedging the positions they assume. Subject to applicable law, the Selling Securityholders may also sell short the Securities and deliver the Securities to close out short positions, or loan or pledge the Securities to broker-dealers that in turn may sell those Securities.

The aggregate proceeds to the Selling Securityholders from the sale of the Securities will be the purchase price of the Securities less discounts and commissions, if any.

In effecting sales, broker-dealers or agents engaged by the Selling Securityholders may arrange for other broker-dealers to participate. Broker-dealers or agents may receive commissions, discounts or concessions from the Selling Securityholders in amounts to be negotiated immediately prior to the sale.

In offering the Securities covered by this prospectus supplement, the Selling Securityholders and any broker-dealers who execute sales for the Selling Securityholders may be deemed to be “underwriters” within the meaning of Section 2(a)(11) of the Securities Act in connection with such sales. Any profits realized by the Selling Securityholders and the compensation of any broker-dealer may be deemed to be underwriting discounts and commissions. Selling Securityholders who are “underwriters” within the meaning of Section 2(a)(11) of the Securities Act will be subject to the prospectus delivery requirements of the Securities Act and may be subject to certain statutory and regulatory liabilities, including liabilities imposed pursuant to Sections 11, 12 and 17 of the Securities Act and Rule 10b-5 under the Exchange Act.

In order to comply with the securities laws of certain states, if applicable, the Securities must be sold in such jurisdictions only through registered or licensed brokers or dealers. In addition, in certain states the Securities may not be sold unless they have been registered or qualified for sale in the applicable state or an exemption from the registration or qualification requirement is available and is complied with.

The anti-manipulation rules of Regulation M under the Exchange Act may apply to sales of Securities pursuant to this prospectus supplement and to the activities of the Selling Securityholders.

Pursuant to the Purchase Agreement, the Company has agreed to indemnify, in certain circumstances, Seller and its affiliates and their respective equity owners, directors, employees, agents and other representatives, against and hold them harmless from all liabilities resulting from, arising out of or related to any breach of any representation, warranty, covenant or agreement of the Company contained in the Purchase Agreement, or certain other matters as set forth in the Purchase Agreement. Seller has agreed (and each of the shareholders of Seller have guaranteed such obligation) to indemnify the Company, Nemschoff Chairs, LLC and all of their respective affiliates and their respective equity owners, directors, employees, agents and other representatives against and hold them harmless from all liabilities resulting from, arising out of or related to any breach of any representation, warranty, covenant or agreement of Seller contained in the Purchase Agreement, or certain other matters as set forth in the Purchase Agreement.

General

The following description of our common stock, together with the additional information we include in any applicable prospectus supplement, summarizes the material terms and provisions of the common stock that may be offered from time to time pursuant to this prospectus. For the complete terms of our common stock, please refer to our Restated Articles of Incorporation, as amended, and Amended and Restated Bylaws that are incorporated by reference into the registration statement of which this prospectus is a part or may be incorporated by reference in this prospectus or any prospectus supplement. The terms of our common stock may also be affected by the Michigan Business Corporation Act. The summary below and that contained in any prospectus supplement is qualified in its entirety by reference to our Restated Articles of Incorporation, as amended, and Amended and Restated Bylaws, copies of which have been filed with the SEC and are also available upon request from us.

Our Restated Articles of Incorporation authorize us to issue a total of 240,000,000 shares of our common stock. As of February 13, 2009, a total of 53,711,457 shares were issued and outstanding. We have reserved an aggregate of 7,505,699 shares of our common stock for issuance pursuant to equity incentive and other stock plans we have previously adopted.

Holders of our common stock are entitled to receive dividends if, as and when declared by our Board of Directors out of funds legally available for dividends. Holders of our common stock are also entitled, upon our liquidation, and after claims of creditors and the preferences of any class or series of preferred stock outstanding at the time of liquidation, to receive pro rata our net assets.

Holders of our common stock are entitled to one vote for each share that they hold and are vested with all of the voting power except as our Board of Directors may provide in the future with respect to preferred stock that the Board of Directors may hereafter authorize. Shares of our common stock are not redeemable, and have no subscription, conversion or preemptive rights.

Transfer Agent and Registrar

The transfer agent and registrar for our common stock is Computershare Investor Services, LLC.

Anti-Takeover Effects of Certain Provisions in our Articles, Bylaws, Michigan Law and Shareholder Rights Plan

Some provisions of our Restated Articles of Incorporation, as amended, our Amended and Restated Bylaws, and Michigan law as well as our Shareholder Rights Plan may be deemed to have an anti-takeover effect and may collectively operate to delay, defer, or prevent a tender offer or takeover attempt that a shareholder might consider in his or her best interest, including those attempts that might result in a premium over the market price for the shares held by our shareholders. These provisions include:

Preferred Stock Authorization. As noted above, our Board of Directors, without shareholder approval, has the authority under our Restated Articles of Incorporation, as amended, to issue preferred stock with rights superior to the rights of the holders of common stock. As a result, preferred stock, while not intended as a defensive measure against takeovers, could be issued quickly and easily, could adversely affect the rights of holders of common stock, and could be issued with terms calculated to delay or prevent a change of control of the Company or make removal of management more difficult.

Classified Board of Directors. The Company's Restated Articles of Incorporation divide the members of our Board of Directors into three classes. The members of each class serve for a three-year term. The terms are staggered, so that each year the term of only one of the classes expires. Staggering directors' terms makes it more difficult for a potential acquirer to seize control of a target company through a proxy contest, even if the acquirer controls a majority of our stock, because only one-third of the directors stand for election in any one year.

Size of the Board of Directors. The Company’s Restated Articles of Incorporation provide that the number of directors may be determined by an affirmative vote of 80% of the Board of Directors and a majority of the Continuing Directors (as defined in the Restated Articles of Incorporation). Generally, a “Continuing Director” is a director who is unaffiliated with a person or entity who owns 10% or more of the Company’s common stock and was a director before the shareholder owned 10% or more of the Company’s common stock. The approval by the Continuing Directors makes it more difficult for a potential acquirer to seize control of the Board of Directors by increasing the number of directors and electing, through its voting power, sufficient directors to control the Board.

Board Evaluation of Certain Offers. The Company’s Restated Articles of Incorporation require the Board of Directors to evaluate any offer to make a tender or exchange offer for any capital stock of the Company, to merge or consolidate the Company with any other entity or to purchase or otherwise acquire all or substantially all of the assets or business of the Company prior to approving, adopting or recommending any such offer. Specifically, the Board of Directors must determine that any such offer would be in compliance with all applicable laws and that the offer is in the best interests of the Company and its shareholders. In connection with its evaluation of the best interests of the Company and its shareholders, the Board of Directors must consider all relevant factors, including, among other factors, the potential social and economic impact of the offer and its consummation on the Company, its employees, customers, vendors and the communities in which the Company operates or is located. The obligation of the Board of Directors to consider such interests may make it more difficult for a potential acquirer to seize control of the Company.

Amendment of Restated Articles of Incorporation and Amended and Restated Bylaws. Under the terms of the Company’s Restated Articles of Incorporation, amendments to Article IX of the Restated Articles of Incorporation (concerning the Board of Directors) and to Article X of the Restated Articles of Incorporation (concerning Board Evaluation of Certain Offers) require an affirmative vote of at least 80% of the outstanding shares entitled to vote on those matters. Under the terms of the Company’s Amended and Restated Bylaws, amendments to Sections 2 or 3 of Article IV of the Amended and Restated Bylaws (concerning directors) require an affirmative vote of a majority of the Continuing Directors and at least 80% of the Board of Directors.

Director Nominations. The Company’s Amended and Restated Bylaws provide that nominations for the election of directors may be made by the Board of Directors or by a shareholder entitled to vote in the election of directors. A shareholder entitled to vote in the election of directors, however, may make such a nomination only if written notice of such shareholder’s intent to do so has been given to the Company within certain periods of time. Each shareholder’s notice must include certain information concerning the shareholder making the nomination and the nominee as may reasonably be required by the Company to determine the qualifications of such person to serve as a director.

Shareholder Proposals. The Company’s Amended and Restated Bylaws provide that the Board of Directors will submit for consideration and vote by the shareholders, at any meeting of the shareholders, only those proposals that are first brought before the meeting by or at the direction of the Board of Directors, or by any shareholder entitled to vote at such meeting; (a) who submits to the Company a timely Notice of Proposal in accordance with the requirements of Section 12 of Article III of the Amended and Restated Bylaws and the proposal is a proper subject for action by shareholders under Michigan law; or (b) whose proposal is included in the Company’s proxy materials in compliance with all the requirements set forth in the applicable rules and regulations of the SEC. Each shareholder’s Notice of Proposal must include certain information concerning the shareholder submitting the notice as well as the proposal.

Fair Price Act. Certain provisions of the Michigan Business Corporation Act, referred to as the Fair Price Act, establish a statutory scheme similar to the supermajority and fair price provisions found in many corporate charters. The Fair Price Act provides that a supermajority vote of 90% of the shareholders and no less than two-thirds of the votes of noninterested shareholders must approve a “business combination.” The Fair Price Act defines a “business combination” to include nearly any merger, consolidation, share exchange, sale of assets, stock issuance, liquidation, or reclassification of securities involving an “interested shareholder” or certain “affiliates” of an interested shareholder. An “interested shareholder” is generally any person who owns 10% or more of the outstanding voting shares of the Company. An “affiliate” is a person who directly or indirectly controls, is controlled by, or is under common control with a specified person.

The supermajority vote required by the Fair Price Act does not apply to business combinations that satisfy certain conditions. These conditions include, among others: (1) the purchase price to be paid for the shares of common stock in the business combination must be at least equal to the highest of either (a) the market value of the shares on the date that the business combination was announced or on the date that the interested shareholder first became an interested shareholder, whichever is higher, or (b) the highest per share price paid by an interested shareholder within the two-year period preceding the announcement of the business combination or in the transaction in which the shareholder first became an interested shareholder, whichever is higher; (2) once becoming an interested shareholder, the person may not become the beneficial owner of any additional shares of the Company except as part of the transaction that resulted in the interested shareholder becoming an interested shareholder or by virtue of proportionate stock splits or stock dividends; and (3) at least five years have passed between the date the interested shareholder first became an interested shareholder and the date the business combination is completed. The requirements of the Fair Price Act do not apply to business combinations with an interested shareholder that the Board of Directors has approved or exempted from the requirements of the Fair Price Act by resolution before the time that the interested shareholder first became an interested shareholder.

Shareholder Protection Rights Agreement. On July 12, 1999, the Company paid a dividend of one right (a “Right”) for each outstanding share of common stock (“Common Stock”) of the Company held of record at the close of business on July 12, 1999 (the “Record Time”). The Rights were issued pursuant to a Shareholder Protection Rights Agreement, dated as of June 30, 1999 (the “Rights Agreement”), between the Company and First Chicago Trust of New York, a division of Equiserve Limited Partnership, as Rights Agent (the “Rights Agent”). Each Right entitles its registered holder to purchase from the Company, after the Separation Time, one one-hundredth of a share of Junior Participating Preferred Stock (“Junior Preferred Stock”), for $100 (the “Exercise Price”), subject to adjustment. Separate certificates evidencing the Rights (“Right Certificates”) were mailed to holders of record of Common Stock at the Record Time (the “Separation Time”).

The Rights will expire on the earlier of (i) the close of business on July 12, 2009, and (ii) the date on which the Rights are redeemed as described below (the “Expiration Time”). The Exercise Price and the number of Rights outstanding, or in certain circumstances the securities purchasable upon exercise of the Rights, are subject to adjustment from time to time to prevent dilution in the event of a Common Stock dividend on, or a subdivision or a combination into a smaller number of shares of, Common Stock, or the issuance or distribution of any securities or assets in respect of, in lieu of, or in exchange for, Common Stock.

In the event that prior to the Expiration Time, a Flip-In Date (as defined below) shall occur, the Company shall take such action as shall be necessary to ensure and provide that, if permitted by applicable law, each Right (other than Rights beneficially owned by the Acquiring Person (as defined below) or any Affiliate or Associate thereof, which Rights shall become void) shall constitute the right to purchase from the Company, upon the exercise thereof in accordance with, and subject to, the terms of the Rights Agreement, that number of shares of Common Stock of the Company having an aggregate Market Price, on the date of the public announcement of an Acquiring Person’s becoming such (the “Stock Acquisition Date”) that gave rise to the Flip-in Date, equal to twice the Exercise Price for an amount in cash equal to the then current Exercise Price. In addition, the Board of Directors of the Company may, at its option, at any time after a Flip-in Date and prior to the time that an Acquiring Person becomes the Beneficial Owner of more than 50% of the outstanding shares of Common Stock, if applicable law permits Rights owned by the Acquiring Person and any Associate or Affiliate thereof to become void, elect to exchange all (but not less than all) the then outstanding Rights (other than Rights Beneficially Owned by the Acquiring Person or any Affiliate or Associate thereof, which Rights become void) for shares of Common Stock at an exchange ratio of one share of Common Stock per Right, appropriately adjusted to reflect any stock split, stock dividend or similar transaction occurring after the date of the Separation Time (the “Exchange Ratio”). Immediately upon such action by the Board of Directors, the right to exercise the Rights will terminate and each Right will thereafter represent only the right to receive a number of shares of Common Stock equal to the Exchange Ratio. “Flip-In Date” means the first date of public announcement by the Company or an Acquiring Person that an Acquiring Person has become such other than as a result of a Flip-over Transaction or Event (as defined below). “Acquiring Person” means a Person becoming the Beneficial Owner of 15% or more of the outstanding shares of Common Stock.

Whenever the Company shall become obligated (as described in the preceding paragraph) to issue shares of Common Stock upon exercise of or in exchange for Rights, the Company, at its option, may substitute therefor shares of Junior Preferred Stock, at a ratio of one one-hundredth of a share of Junior Preferred Stock for each share of Common Stock so issuable.

In the event that prior to the Expiration Time the Company enters into, consummates, or permits to occur a “Flip-over Transaction or Event” (as defined in the Rights Agreement), the Company shall take such action as shall be necessary to ensure, and shall not enter into, consummate, or permit to occur any Flip-over Transaction or Event unless and until it shall have entered into a supplemental agreement with the Person engaging in such Flip-over Transaction or Event (the “Flip-over Entity”), for the benefit of the holders of the Rights, providing that upon consummation or occurrence of the Flip-over Transaction or Event (i) each Right shall thereafter constitute the right to purchase from the Flip-over Entity, upon exercise thereof in accordance with the terms of the Rights Agreement, that number of shares of common stock of the Flip-over Entity having an aggregate Market Price on the date of consummation or occurrence of such Flip-over Transaction or Event equal to twice the Exercise Price for an amount in cash equal to the then current Exercise Price and (ii) the Flip-over Entity shall thereafter be liable for, and shall assume, by virtue of such Flip-over Transaction or Event and such supplemental agreement, all the obligations and duties of the Company pursuant to the Rights Agreement.

The Board of Directors of the Company may, at its option, at any time prior to the Flip-in Date, redeem all (but not less than all) the then outstanding Rights at a redemption price of $.001 per Right, subject to adjustment, (the “Redemption Price”), as provided in the Rights Agreement. Immediately upon the action of the Board of Directors of the Company electing to redeem the Rights, without any further action and without any notice, the right to exercise the Rights will terminate and each Right will thereafter represent only the right to receive the Redemption Price in cash for each Right so held. The holders of Rights will, solely by reason of their ownership of Rights, have no rights as shareholders of the Company, including, without limitation, the right to vote or to receive dividends.

The Rights will not prevent a takeover of the Company. The Rights, however, may have certain anti-takeover effects. The Rights may cause substantial dilution to a person or group that acquires 15% or more of the Common Stock unless the Rights are first redeemed by the Board of Directors of the Company. Nevertheless, the Rights should not interfere with a transaction that is in the best interests of the Company and its shareholders on or prior to the Flip-in Date, because the Rights can be redeemed before the consummation of such transaction.

Whenever particular terms that are defined in the Rights Agreement are referred to in this prospectus, it is intended that such defined terms shall be incorporated herein by reference.

There are no assurances that dividends will be paid by us in future periods or that dividends, if paid, will be at the same amounts per share as in prior periods.
